Hi Mike -- I spoke with Rob yesterday. He's supposed to be sending me an email summary shortly with all the information, but basically....

The counties agreed to try to open the bridges manually, and they are out there today.

Will keep you posted when I hear more.

Thanks

Stan,

Saw you called last night and sorry I missed it. How did the meeting go? Really, two things.

Is the schedule still the same?

Can the bridge(s) be opened manually and will they be?

Thank you.
